2) Trogon Villa

Location: Bumthang – Ura Highway, Mongar, Bhutan

Trogon Villa is a small, cozy eco-lodge located in the midst of one of the best birding locations in Bhutan. This 3 star boutique hotel offers a decent accommodation at a wonderful location which is truly bird watcher's paradise. The name of establishment is inspired by rare Ward's Trogon, an extremely elusive bird known to reside in temperate and subtropical forests across the Himalayas, Myanmar and Vietnam. Due to habitat loss and degradation, the Ward's Trogon has been listed as one of the globally endangered birds.

Yongkola, the location of the eco-lodge, is one of the few places in the world where one can catch a glimpse of the Ward's Trogon unperturbed in its natural habitat. The location Yongkola, where Trogon Villa is located, lies in between Bumthang and Mongar. It is 56 km away from the town of Mongar. The eco-lodge provides a picturesque view of the beautiful rolling hills of Yongkola while being conveniently situated next to the highway.
