

FIVE STAR HOTELS OF WANGDUE PHODRANG

1)Amankora

Location: Tokha Village Gangtey Gewog, Phobjikha, Wangdue, Bhutan

In the picturesque but little-visited Phobjikha Valley near the village of Gangtey, the eight-suite Amankora Gangtey is set on a forested knoll with sweeping views of the broad valley and the 16th-century Gangtey Goemba (monastery). Amankora Gangtey lies in the little-visited Phobjikha Valley near the isolated village of Gangtey. Part of one of Bhutan's most important wildlife reserves, the valley is home each winter to a flock of 300 rare and endangered black-neck cranes. Lodge accommodations and guest facilities housed together. The combined Living and Dining Room features cosy chairs, sofas and family-style dining tables, all looking out through floor-to-ceiling windows over the valley and surrounding mountains. The dining room features a family-style dining experience of Western and Bhutanese food as well as an assortment of local and imported beverages. Spa facilities include two treatment rooms, changing areas, and offer guests a variety of treatments on the lodge's ground floor..
